

Blessed Matachines

Third Grade through Eighth Grade Students

With Father Chris' blessing, the Blessed Matachines will make their debut at this year's Our Lady of Guadalupe Mass (Parish) and Prayer Service (School). We invite students in Third Grade through Eighth Grade to learn this simple, easy, and meaningful dance. If you are interested in participating or have ever participated and would like to join us, please return the lower portion of this letter with your parent's signature.

Practices will begin the week of November 5, 2018. All practices will be held during school hours.

Each dancer is responsible for the following:

- A Pair of Maracas
- A Headpiece
- Sandals or Moccasin Type Shoes, No Flip Flops
- Costume

Ms. Martinez, our school's Office Manager, has provided samples of headpiece ideas and costumes used by various Matachine groups.

At this time, Blessed Sacrament Catholic School does not have costumes to lend students at this time.
