Blessed Sacrament Catholic School
Fourth Grade and Fifth Grade Reading Choice Board

Make a list of 20 words with suffixes. (Remember that a suffix follows a base word. For example: shifted)	Read a nonfiction book. Write down 5 new facts you learned. Write down any questions you still have. Read another nonfiction text to try and find answers to your questions.	Be creative. Write a different ending or chapter to a story you read.	Illustrate the cover of a book you have read that is different from the actual cover. Why did you design it this way?	Think about the setting of the text you're reading, and write 5 complete sentences to describe the setting. Remember, setting can include where the story takes place as well as when and the time of year.
Read a book about someone who made a change.	What is the genre of the book you are reading? How do you know? Give examples from the text.	Read a book set in a different country.	Find five new vocabulary words in a book you're reading, and look up the meaning of the words. Write a sentence using each word.	Find 3 examples of descriptive phrases that the author uses in your book. How did these phrases help you visualize what you were reading?
Read a book about a real person (biography).	Design a timeline showing important dates or events, in sequence, from the text.	Take a walk with a friend or family member, and tell them about the book you're reading.	Read a fiction or non-fiction book. Write a one-sentence summary.	Read a fiction book. What lesson do you think the author wants you to learn from reading a story? What makes you think that?
You are going to give one character in your book an award for one of their character traits. What award would you give them? Explain with at least two details from the text as to why they deserve it.	Read a book about taking care of nature.	Read aloud to one of your family members or even your pet. Practice reading with good expression and read in meaningful phrases.	Read a fiction book. Describe the problem(s) the main character is facing and how they solve it.	Read a book that won an award.